

Example Response Space for End-of-Course Test of English II

This is an example of the response space available on an English II answer sheet for recording an answer to a constructed response item.

A rectangular box with a black border, containing four horizontal lines for writing a response.