

Algebra

Goal: The learner will understand and use linear relations and functions.

Objective:

5.01 Develop an understanding of function.

b) Identify relations and functions as linear or nonlinear.

To achieve this objective, students should:

- Recognize data as linear or nonlinear.
- Recognize that linear data represents a constant change in x and y and how this change is represented in the tables, graphs, algebraic representations, and written descriptions