

Give Five – Read Five Prizes for Top Schools

As a part of the Give Five – Read Five campaign, the four schools that collect the most donated books will receive one of the below prizes. Schools must submit the number of books collected to diane.dulaney@dpi.nc.gov by June 17, 2016 to be eligible for a prize. Incentives are available through the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction's partnership with MetaMetrics™. To learn more about MetaMetrics, visit <http://www.metametricsinc.com/>.

Achieve3000 is offering a one-year school subscription to KidBiz3000®, our differentiated online literacy solution for grades 2-5. This innovative solution is proven to help all students build comprehension, fluency, vocabulary, and writing proficiency. By providing engaging, 100% nonfiction content, differentiated to students' individual learning levels based on ongoing Lexile® reading assessments we help ALL students accelerate reading gains.

<http://www.achieve3000.com/>

myON, a business unit of Capstone, is offering a one-year school license of their personalized literacy program. Students personalize their reading experience by matching their interests and Lexile® level to a recommended book list generated from over 7,000 enhanced digital books from award-winning authors and publishers. myON features include:

- Unlimited access to all enhanced digital books including 70% nonfiction titles, 10% Spanish with reading supports-highlighting, naturally recorded audio and an embedded dictionary
- Online and offline apps through iPad, Android and Kindle Fire HD
- Real-time reporting for students, educators and families to track reading growth myON will unleash the magic that can be found in reading for every student!

www.TheFutureinReading.com

Reading Horizons software products use the latest technology to engage beginning readers, struggling readers, and English language learners in research-based reading instruction that makes learning to read a simple, straight-forward, and enjoyable process. All of Reading Horizons software products are enhanced with reading assessments powered by the Lexile® Framework for Reading to monitor and gauge student progress throughout instruction. Reading Horizons will offer winning schools a license for the Discovery™ and Elevate™ products.

<http://www.readinghorizons.com/>

